
23rd Annual Conference on Alternative Economic Policy in Europe

- Can the EU still be saved? The implications of a multi-speed Europe -

Workshop Programme (as of 24/09/2017)

WORKSHOP 1 – Macroeconomic policies: debt overhang and sustainable growth & development

Chair: Marica Frangakis & Achim Truger

Robert Hutterski / Nicolaus Copernicus University Torun, Faculty of Economic Sciences and Management

The Impact of the Public Debt Structure in the European Union Member Countries on the Possibility of Debt Overhang

Ignacio Alvarez / Autonomous University of Madrid, Department of Economic Structure, Complutense Institute of International Studies (ICEI)

Jorge Uxó / University of Castilla La Mancha, Department of Economic Analysis and Finance

Functional income distribution: vector for a new growth model

Karim Belgacem / European Academy of Diplomacy and IRIS

The debt's problem in France: its own particularity and the future policy of Macron toward Europe

Achim Truger / Berlin School of Economics and Law

Can EU-fiscal policy be expansionary? A review of recent developments in fiscal policies

Jacques Mazier / University Paris 13

Pascal Petit / University Paris 13

Dominique Plihon / University Paris 13

From monetary union to differentiated integration

Jan Prieue / Economic Policy Institute (IMK) Hans-Böckler-Foundation

Policy options against current account imbalances within the Monetary Union

Martin Prior / Independent

Geographic Factors in Currency Depreciation

WORKSHOP 2 – Dynamizing productive development in the EU: structural reforms or industrial policies?
Chair: Werner Raza
Joachim Becker / Vienna University of Economics and Business Rudy Weissenbacher / Vienna University of Economics and Business Beyond European Relations of Production
Felix Syrovatka / Eberhard-Karls-University of Tübingen Etienne Schneider / University of Vienna Economic asymmetries and political paralysis in the Eurozone – Avenues and obstacles for progressive productive reconstruction
Petros Linardos Rulmond / Nicos Poulantzas Institute Reconstructing Greece and rethinking the European Industrial Policy
Ravi Kant Tripathi / Université Paris 13 Labour Market during Crisis: Questioning the “German Model”

WORKSHOP 3 – Financial policies: Dollar hegemony and the subordination of European finance
Chair: John Grahl
Gabriel Sakellariadis Government Debt, Repo Markets and Financial Instability in Eurozone: A Minskyan Analysis
John Grahl / Middlesex University Germany's Brake on European Capital Market Development

WORKSHOP 4 – Inequality and social crisis
Chair: Mahmoud Messkoub & Jeremy Leaman
Anne Eydoux / Centre for Employment and Labour Studies (CEET) and Lise-CNRS Beyond flexibility and activation: are there alternative employment and welfare policies at local, national or EU levels?
Iganzio Masulli / University of Bologna Late capitalist restructuring and social inequalities
Maria-Eleni Agoraki / Panteion University of social and politic sciences Antonios Alevizos / Panteion University of social and politic sciences Magdalini Eleftheroglou / Panteion University of social and politic sciences Varvara Veli / Panteion University of social and politic sciences Social inequalities and Economic crisis. A comparative analysis of income inequalities of U.S.A. and European households
Laura Horn / Roskilde University Social democracy and inequality in the European Union

WORKSHOP 5 – The EU in a fragmenting international order
Chair: Catherine Sifakis
Heikki Patomäki / University of Helsinki, Department of Political and Economic Studies Four Scenarios about the Future of the European Union
Yiannis Tolios / Marxist Space of Study and Research (MAXΩME) in Athens Strategy of equal cooperation as a response by peripheral members of the EU to the 'globalization' and 'European integration' process
Carlo Giannone / University of Sannio, Benevento The EMU in 2017: Too Large for a New Start? A Collective Action Approach
Catherine Sifakis / Pierre Mendès France University Broken United States – European Union Consensus
Leon Podkaminer / The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies Economic Disintegration of the EU: Probable, Though Not Unavoidable
WORKSHOP 6 – Alternative visions for socio-ecological transformation and the good life for all
Chair: Marija Bartl & Ronan O'Brien
Vedran Horvat / Institute for Political Ecology From better life to good life. What more we need?
Nik de Boer / University of Amsterdam Financial Globalisation and the Crisis of Democratic Capitalism: Re-imagining Free Capital Movement for Socio-ecological Transformations
Jens van 't Klooster / Cambridge University Clément Fontan / Göteborg University Democratizing Central Bank Asset Purchases
Ronan O'Brien / Independent researcher A review of various approaches to socio-ecological transformation
Background papers
Klaus Busch, Axel Troost, Gesine Schwan, Frank Bsirske et alia: A Europe built on solidarity is possible! Pamphlet for another European Union
Peter Bofinger et alia: A strategy for more investment, more growth and employment in Europe
Anton Filipenko / Taras Shevchenko national university of Kyiv Productivity in agricultural sector in Ukraine and in EU: The road to convergence
Konstantin Dedes / Diplarios School of Athens The Role of the Entropy in the Productive Reconstruction
Colin Hines: The EU can only be saved by Progressive Protectionism